Forgot Two

In the report of the County Institute in last week's paper the names of J. P. Romines and E. H. Boyd, who were instructors in the institute, were unintentionally omitted. Prof. Romines had the United States History, and conducted the work successfully. Ex-Supt. Boyd very ably discussed the subject of Civil Government, and also delivered one address on Literature, and one on Higher Education. I regret very much that these names were not mentioned last week, but it was wholly an oversight.

Respectfully,
J. M. HATFIELD,
Co. Supt.

Mt. View Lodge, No. 179, I. O. O. F. met at the usual hour July 14th, 1911, Leon D. Bockman, N. G., presiding, and a very good attendance for the Friday night meeting.

The regular routine of business was disposed of.

The sick and ailing brothers were all reported improving, more or less.

The second degree was conferred upon two applicants in very good style. The new officers show promise of splendid work.

The Grand Master's official visit to this lodge on Friday, the 21st inst., at 2 p. m. was read and discussed and it was decided by the lodge to request that the 2 p. m. be changed to 1 p. m., it being to the interest to all concerned as the Grand Master by the 2 p. m. appointment had only about thirty minutes for entertainment as the train leaves Algood about 3 p. m. for Livingston and his next appointment is at Livingston the 21st inst. at night.

The Grand Secretary is now convalescent after 2 weeks spell of sickness.

Bro. I. W. McCluen, P. G., will install the officers elect of the Rebekah Lodge next Monday night. It is desired that all entitled should attend, a good time is promised.

All members should attend the next meeting as there will be interesting business transacted.

Shoots at Engineer

Engineer Jesse E. Johnston of the Tennessee Central had a narrow escape from death one day last week. In going out over the Crawford branch his train ran over a cow belonging to Robt. Coleman, and when the train was returning to Monterey Coleman, who was in waiting, fired both barrels of a shot gun at Johnston. Fortunately the aim was bad and the charges lodged in the woodwork of the engine cab, and Jesse escaped without a scratch.

Banking by Mail

Celeste, Texas

Joe King, your letter brought things to my mind that I hadn't thought of in many years. Me too would like to see the day when I could meet all of my old schoolmates together, I know it would be a grand old reunion, and if God lets me live I intend to pay my old home a visit some day in the future.

My papa lives near Ladonia, Texas. I was at home two weeks ago, and he had a fine prospect for a good crop.

The three girls live near papa and mama, and Wesley is still at home.

We left Putnam County in 1902 and came to Texas.

In 1905 I was married to a girl by the name of Dodd. And in June 1908 she was taken sick and died in April the following year. She left me with a sweet little girl who my dear mama takes so much interest in. She is four years old and if she lives she will soon be large enough to pay her grandma for her kind attention.

I will watch the Herald and cheerfully read all the letters that my old schoolmates and friends may write.

CRAFFORD LANSFORD.

State Election Commission

A board composed of the state comptroller, treasurer and secretary of state has met and elected a new state election commission, the members named being W. T. Blackard of Jackson, E. D. Hancock of Murfreesboro, and W. W. Taylor of Nashville, the latter being the Republican member.

It is claimed that the election of an entire new board is in accord with the law, but litigation will probably follow as the old board asserts that it is the legal one.

Secretary of State Goodloe did not take part in the election of the new board.

The old board met in Nashville Wednesday and named county commissioners. For Putnam the new board is E. H. Foyd, Jere Whitson and J. W. Brown.

The great reduction sale is now going on at Whitson Bros'.
